

2014 SAUVIGNON BLANC SEMILLON

The Weekend Australian - James Halliday

94 Points

"Intense, incisive aromas and flavours from nettle and snow pear to gooseberry, citrus and nuances of passionfruit, bound together by balanced acidity."

A very clever wine that has neatly styled lime and white peach fruit. Gently flinty, some dried flowers and grassy nuances, with plenty of interest here. The palate is lined with tropical fruits in the mango and guava flavor spectrum, fleshy and ripe, nicely cut with crunchy acidity. Drink now. Screw cap.
